

THOMAS J. SLICK DIES WEDNESDAY

Resident of South Bend 59
Years Succumbs to Bright's Disease.

Thomas Jefferson Slick, 78 years old, a resident of South Bend for the past 59 years, died Wednesday morning at the national home for volunteer soldiers at Marion, Ind., where he went recently for special treatment for Bright's disease.

Mr. Slick was born in Lancaster county, Pa., on Aug. 27, 1841 and in that same year the family home was established in Stark county, O., where it remained until 1860, when they came to this city. Mr. Slick then engaged in the grocery business with his father and brother, John Y. Slick, until the death of his father in 1877 when he took up agricultural pursuits which claimed his attention for 15 years. Returning to South Bend in 1885 he was elected county assessor of St. Joseph county for four years.

Three Years in Army.
In 1862 Mr. Slick joined the union forces as a member of the 21st Indiana battery and served for three years in the western army under Rosecrans and Thomas. He participated in the battles of Chickamauga, Chattanooga, Franklin and Nashville, and was mustered out of service in Oct. 1865. In the same year that he enlisted he was married to Miss Laura A. Whitten, a daughter of Pres't Whitten, one of the early pioneers of South Bend, the golden anniversary of his wedding being celebrated on Aug. 15, 1918.

Mr. Slick became interested in the laundry business in 1882 and for the past 16 years has been serving as president of the Slick's Laundry Co. of this city and of the Slick's Laundry Co. of Gary, Ind.

Leaves Many Relatives.
Mr. Slick is survived by his wife, residing at 114 Marquette av., seven children, Edmund H., Thomas W., Charles W. Slick and Mrs. Earl W. Dunkle of this city; Samuel H. Slick of Gary, Ind., Capt. W. Albert Slick with the quartermaster corps in France, and Lieut. John L. Slick of Camp Custer, Mich., a brother, John Y. Slick of this city and seven grandchildren, Lieut. Glen Slick with A. E. P. Ralph, Mary and Ann Slick of South Bend; Carroll and George Slick of Gary, Ind., and John L. Slick, Jr. of Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. Slick was a member of the Methodist church and of the Autean Post, No. 8, G. A. R.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

GIRLS' DEBATING CLUB PRESENTS PLAYLET

A clever playlet and entertainment were given by the Girls' Debating club at the high school assembly Wednesday morning. The cast in the playlet, "Maidens All Forlorn" included Ethel R. Welsh, Marjorie L. Taylor, Helen W. Gaffill, Mabel K. Weber, Iva C. Baymen and Kathryn Grimm.

The playlet was presented by Margaret Geyer and Lucille Gerber. A quintet composed of Dorothy Crabb, Ruth Park, Dorothea Snyder, Ruth Gau and Martha Smith rendered several vocal selections and ukulele numbers were given by Lucille Snor, Margaret Heideman, Dorothy Crabb and Ruth Gau. Ruth Bengston acted as stage manager.

The club is sponsored by Miss Edith Hopkins.

POSTAL DEPARTMENT CORRECTS REPORTS

The postal department announces that misleading reports are being disseminated through the medium of publications printed in foreign languages, regarding the resumption or extension of money order business with Austria, Hungary, Poland, and with new states now in the process of formation. The fact that mail communication is being restored in those countries is probably the reason for the erroneous reports.

The department also announces that return receipts are not furnished for registered articles delivered through the British army postoffice, as the British army service has no effective means of handling such receipts.

INSPECT INTERURBAN LINE TO ST. JOSEPH

An inspection of the interurban railway line from South Bend to St. Joseph, Mich., will be made today by Alfred E. Dietrich and son of Indianapolis, directors of the Northern Indiana Railway company, who yesterday inspected the line to Michigan City. Charles Murdoch, vice president, will be an addition to the party which made the trip yesterday including R. R. Smith, general manager, L. E. Hollar, transportation superintendent, and Harry Wair, lawyer for the company.

REV. O'HAIR SPEAKS

Rev. J. C. O'Hair of Chicago gave another of a series of addresses before members of the Bible class at the Rescue Mission Tuesday evening, speaking on the "Seven Feasts." There was a large attendance at the meeting. Rev. O'Hair will deliver the next talk on Monday evening, May 12.

"Moses in South Bend"

Being a High School Boy's Contribution to the "Literature" of the Victory Loan.

The following Biblical essay on the Victory Liberty loan was written by Richard Steele, 14 years old, a student in the South Bend high school. The young man lives with his parents in Kossuth. His article entitled "Moses in South Bend," on the loan attracted much attention among his instructors at the high school:

"The cool evening of the desert was a pleasant contrast with the heat of the stifling day. Upon the desert were camped the tribes of Israel. Upon one tent in particular all attention seemed to be directed. People were seen hurrying up to it and diving under the heavy, hanging flaps. Inside the people were gathered; an immense crowd of them and in the center stood a figure, old, but with yet the vigor and health of youth.

"Suddenly the figure raised his hand and silence fell upon the assembled crowd. The person spoke: 'I, Moses, have just come back to earth from a dream—a wonderful dream. In this dream I was carried over sand and sea to a wondrous place, the like of which I had never seen before. The ways traversed by men were hard and the sound made by the feet of the people was awesome to hear. And lo! I was given the power by Jehovah to give heed unto their tongue. And the words of the people were many and varied.

"The men's legs were encased in columns of cloth and upon their feet wore they shoes of a hard substance. And the name of the town was South Bend. And lo! I attempted to cross one of the hard ways when suddenly a great monster on chariot wheels came toward me with a shriek. Holy Abraham! Thou it must have been who saved me from the monster for yea, verily, I say unto you, the monster turned aside when it neared me and lo! there were men inside the body of the monster and as it went by with wondrous power, the man spoke the mystic words, 'Who's that old clown?'

"Now I, Moses, being tired of the hard ways and horrible shrieks of the monsters, walked with a crowd following me to the South Bend high school. And lo! here was a building of great height and which covered great space. And I, Moses, beheld strange people who walked on hard ways and who entered boxes of great size where people sat back of smaller boxes. Ah! Father Abraham, was'er such a sight seen by mortal eyes? And I heard words of strange meaning and a frequent calling for 'kid,' though I, Moses, saw neither kid nor goat in that huge dwelling place. And I, Moses, do hereby wear my by our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to have seen these things which Jehovah gave me the power to see.

"Now, behold, after seeing great heights of stone, shrieking monsters, great red fire chariots, women encircled in columns of rustling cloth and with strange devices on their heads, and other wonders, I was carried by the power of Jehovah back to my tent with but one reminder of my wondrous visit to this mystic place. And verily, verily, I say unto you that this was small, blue object with the following mystic signs on it: 'Victory loan. I will be a volunteer subscriber.'

CREDIT MEN TO HEAR WAGNER

Plan Also to Stage Sequel to "Ketchum and Cheatum" Farce Friday.

With Gilbert F. Wagner, attorney for the Chicago Association of Credit Men, booked for the principal address of the evening and the trial of "Ketchum & Cheatum" scheduled to follow Mr. Wagner's talk, the dinner of the South Bend Association of Credit Men to be held in the Rotary room of the Oliver hotel Friday night, promises to be one of the best meetings ever held by that organization.

Mr. Wagner has had much experience in the adjustment bureau of the Chicago association and will discuss matters in connection with the various phases of commercial fraud. At the meeting a year ago, "Ketchum & Cheatum" managed to "put one over," but at the coming meeting they are to be brought before the courts of justice. The "Ketchum & Cheatum" affair at the last year's meeting proved to be unusually interesting and as the same cast of characters is to be used, much interest is being evinced.

The following members will be included in the trial: L. M. Hammer, Schmidt, D. M. Shively, W. G. Campbell, L. E. Pease, C. L. Ziegler, S. J. Reynolds, A. H. Katterheirrich, Jessica Pond, F. H. Schrop, A. G. Rumpf, R. O. Morgan, A. L. Reinhold, F. C. Grimes and P. S. Fuson. Ladies are to be guests.

FUNERALS

JACOB KLINGEL.
Funerals at the funeral of Jacob Klingel, which will be held at the residence, 417 N. Main st., at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon will be George W. Kaller, Donald McGregor, Charles Keller, Edward Zeltler, T. E. Bondurant and Phillip Goetz. Rev. C. A. Lippincott will officiate and burial will be in Riverview cemetery.

JOHN J. SHEA.
Funeral services for John J. Shea will be held at the residence, 304 E. Haney av., Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. John P. DeGroote, C. S. C., will officiate and burial will be in Bowman cemetery.

PAIR ARE FOUND NOT GUILTY OF LARCENY

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Thomas, 305 E. Howard st., were found not guilty of petit larceny charges filed against them by Mrs. Martha Broder in city court Wednesday morning before Special Judge Dan Pyle.

Hugh McCarty, was arraigned for intoxication and was given the usual fine of one dollar and costs, the same being suspended in case Hugh got out of town before night and back to his farm near Niles, Mich.

OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's day will be observed at the Harris Prairie church on the Edwardsburg road with special services to be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Pat Emmens of South Bend will be the principal speaker, and music will be furnished by a mother's quartet. Several songs and recitations will be added features of the program.

MINISTERS FAVOR WELFARE CHEST

Would Allow Each Organization to Choose Own Representative.

The South Bend Ministerial association is on record in favor of a continuation of the War Chest as a Welfare Chest under a modification of the plan now in force. The action was taken at a special meeting of the association Tuesday afternoon.

The ministers are in favor of one united campaign for all relief work. The association favors the nomination and election of representatives from the various relief organizations affected within the organization itself, however, without any outside nominations.

The ministers also voted unanimously, on motion of Dr. C. A. Lippincott, that "it is the sense of the association" that the War Chest should pay in full its promise to the Armenian and Syrian relief fund.

A committee of Rev. Dr. J. N. Greene is chairman was named to formulate the resolutions and present them at the meeting of the War Chest next Monday evening.

ARTISTS TO RAISE FUND TO DEFEND WIDOW

By United Press.
CHICAGO, May 7.—Chicago artists planned to raise a defense fund here today for Mrs. Vera Trepagnier, 60 year old widow, charged with killing P. F. Volland, wealthy art publisher.

Orrie McCombs, a painter, said he and many others in the profession stood ready to "see Mrs. Trepagnier through."

The miniature of George Washington, an heirloom in the Trepagnier family, which caused the trouble, may be returned to the New Orleans widow, it was said by an attorney for the Volland estate. It will be surrendered upon the return of the royalty agreement between Volland and Mrs. Trepagnier, according to present plans, he said.

Gossip of the Markets

STOCK OPINIONS—John Moody.
—"It is probable that not long after the treaty of peace is signed we shall witness a substantial increase in the labor supply here, brought about by heavy immigration into this country. To be sure, there is an expectation in some quarters that instead there will be a heavy immigration and this notion is supported by the relatively large immigration which is now going on. This movement, however, looks temporary and probably represents nothing more than the return of the refugees."

"While a much higher level of prices is to be expected this summer, it will be well to adopt a conservative policy for a time until Pres't Wilson has been endorsed by the new senate in his treaty decisions."—Clark Childs and Co.

Revised Feb. 1, 1919, by South Bend Chamber of Commerce.

Facts Worth Knowing About South Bend

SOUTH BEND is located eighty-six miles east of Chicago at the point where the St. Joseph river, America's most picturesque stream, makes its "south bend" and turns northward to the great lakes.

AREA: (City proper), 15.74 square miles; altitude, 722 feet.

ASSESSED VALUATION: Real estate, improvements, personal property, $35,110,860.

CITY DEBT: Bonded debt $498,500

Sinking fund $1,110

Net debt $447,387

CITY PROPERTY AND FIXED ASSETS: $3,048,401.

CLUBS: Chamber of Commerce with exclusive club house and equipment, Indiana Club, Knife and Fork Club, South Bend Woman's Club, Progress Club, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Ad-Sell League, University Club, and Country Club with a most complete house and golf course. Also an unusual number of other clubs and organizations which provide for intellectual needs and social life.

DEATH RATE: 9.89 per 1,000.

BIRTH RATE: 18.64 per 1,000.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS: Eighteen grade public schools, valued at $1,250,000. A new $450,000 High School. A vocational school. Twelve parochial schools. School enumeration 6 to 21 years, 16,657 (1915). School attendance (approximately), 12,000. Free public night schools are conducted in four of the ward buildings and in the High School with an attendance of about one thousand. Night school work is also provided by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The University of Notre Dame is located just north of the city. St. Mary's Academy, another large Catholic institution, provides for the academic and collegiate training of girls. In addition to these are the following special and technical schools: Three business colleges, two schools of music.

FACILITIES FOR NEW INDUSTRIES: An important inducement to new industries that may not at once require an individual plant is furnished by a Manufacturers' Plant and Power Co. Space and power to suit can be had in the buildings of this company at low rental. Rental includes water, heat, watchman and elevator service. Many excellent sites and a few buildings procurable. Write South Bend Chamber of Commerce for list and prices.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS: Ten banks and trust companies with total resources of $22,890,383.02.

LABOR: South Bend is what is called in labor circles as an "open town." There is an abundance of both skilled and unskilled labor and plenty more to draw upon in the smaller adjacent towns. Wage scales furnished on request. A large proportion of working-men own their homes.

POPULATION: The following comparative figures are most significant as showing that South Bend has never had a boom, but a steady, normal, though rapid growth. Such a growth is positive evidence of the general advantage of the city as an industrial and commercial center.

Population, U. S. census: 1880, 13,280; 1890, 21,819; 1900, 26,992; 1910, 53,684; (Local Census), 1912, 63,800, and 1918, 67,939.

POWER: The St. Joseph river is now developing approximately 25,000 hydro-electric horsepower from four dams in this vicinity, most of this power being available for South Bend. The obvious advantages of electric power, and the low price at which it is furnished here, are practical inducements no manufacturer can overlook.

Cost of power and light: Electric, .06 to .0951 per k. w. hr. Average cost 16 to 50 h. p., $24.00 per h. p. per year.

Gas, 65 cents to 90 cents per M cubic feet net.

PUBLIC SAFETY: Fire Department—Ten stations, fifty-four men; sixteen pieces of apparatus; auto equipment included. The efficiency of the fire department is shown by the following figures: Value of buildings and contents at risk in the last 13 years $11,605,952

Total fire loss last 15 years 598,157

Average loss per year for 13 years 45,243

POLICE DEPARTMENT: Sixty-six men and two police women. Police ambulance, auto patrol and motorcycle squad.

RELIGIOUS AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS: Sixty-six churches, including all leading denominations; Y. M. C. A. costing with equipment about $300,000.00, and a $100,000.00 boys' branch. A Y. W. C. A. costing $75,000.00. Museums—one in the city and one at Notre Dame. Two hospitals and a county infirmary and an orphan's home.

STREETS: Total length of streets, alleys and avenues in the city limits, 217.3 miles. Total length of streets, alleys and avenues paved, 80.39 miles. Complete boulevard system being developed.

STREET LIGHTS: Total public lights, 1,294, including 400 electric incandescents and other incandescents and magenta. Cost $60,000 per year. Many streets are illuminated with the improved boulevard cluster lights.

STREET RAILWAYS: (Electric), in city limits, total length, 22.28 miles.

TELEPHONES: Central Union, manual exchange, 6,650 stations; automatic calls per day, 44,000. Long distance calls per day, 830. Direct connection with New York, Chicago, San Francisco and all intermediate points.

Automatic exchange, 4,740 stations, connected with six exchanges. Average calls per day, 42,000.

TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES: South Bend has eight steam and three electric roads. The steam roads are the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern (New York Central), the Grand Trunk, the Michigan Central (two divisions), the Vandalia, (Pennsylvania system), the Chicago, Indiana & Southern, and the New Jersey, Indiana & Illinois. An eighth road, the Lake Erie & Western, supplies through passenger service between South Bend and Indianapolis, entering the city over the tracks of the New York Central. Two belt roads encircle the city and switching charges are absorbed by the railroads. The electric lines are the Chicago, South Bend & Northern Indiana, the Chicago, Lake Shore & South Bend, and the Southern Michigan. These lines provide service between this city, Chicago and Indianapolis, and important points on the shore of Lake Michigan.
